

VETERAN UNION IN COURT

Gen. R. St. G. Dyrenforth
Answers Commander
Meacham.

POLITICS IS SUGGESTED

Argument Over Dismissal of Restraining Order Taken Under Advice
by Justice Barnard.

Gen. Robert St. George Dyrenforth, commander-in-chief of the Union Veterans' Union, and a number of his friends were present in the Supreme Court of the District yesterday to hear argument on the petition of John F. Meacham, commander of the Division of the Potomac, to enjoin the former from putting in force his order suspending him from office. Mr. Meacham and some of his friends were also present.

After hearing argument to dismiss the temporary restraining order issued on Wednesday last, Justice Barnard took the matter under advisement and announced that he will deliver his decision this morning at 11 o'clock.

When General Dyrenforth issued the order suspending Mr. Meacham from office he also appointed Lieut. Col. Charles F. Noske, of Hancock Regiment, to fill the vacancy. Mr. Meacham asked the court to also enjoin Mr. Noske from exercising the duties of the office.

Within Authority.

In his argument to the court, Mr. A. Hoelling, junior counsel for General Dyrenforth, contended that while the general acted wholly within his authority as conferred upon him by the constitution of the Union Veterans' Union, still he believed that it is a matter that can be best settled by that organization now in annual session.

On the other hand, Mr. W. D. Glasie, in the petitioner's behalf, contended that his client was acting entirely within the scope of the constitution of the order and feels that the court should protect him in the holding and exercise of the duties of his office which was conferred upon him by the order.

The restraining order issued by Justice Barnard on Wednesday last was made returnable next Friday, but by agreement between all parties concerned the matter came on for hearing yesterday on the motion of General Dyrenforth to dismiss the petition.

In support of his motion General Dyrenforth said:

"The conduct of the complainant in precipitating this litigation right at this time, on the eve of the national encampment and at the place of the encampment, and in obtaining a restraining order against the commander-in-chief of the order, thereby creating strife, turmoil, and uncertainty, stamps itself as showing the complainant to be utterly lacking in all true or real considerations for the good and welfare of the order."

Hints at Politics.

"His conduct is for the evident purpose of vexing, harassing, and annoying General Dyrenforth; it grows out of a vindictive spirit, and doubtless has for its object the accomplishing of something in a political way at the coming encampment, and to further which purpose the court and its process are attempted to be abused."

The answer further states: "General Dyrenforth having been quite ill upon his return from the national encampment at which he was last elected commander-in-chief, found upon his recovery and going to the meetings of Hancock Regiment, of which he is a member, that friction existed in the organization, composed of a very small number of the membership, headed by D. W. Glasie, F. M. Taylor, and others."

In Opposition.

"This faction seemed to oppose anything and everything undertaken by the division commander, and therefore as the commander-in-chief could not agree with their attempting to oppose and obstruct him, so far as by innuendo and petty annoyance they could, it was determined by a great majority of the members to leave Hancock Regiment and to form a new regiment."

HALLS OF THE ANCIENTS.

These wonderful halls, illustrating the domestic life of ancient civilizations, had a new program last night specially suited to the G. A. R. crowds. The cinematograph motion pictures included live views from all parts of the world, war scenes, coronation of King Edward, McKinley scenes, Miss Alice Roosevelt, the President and Prince Henry at the launching of the Kaiser's yacht, etc. The program was enthusiastically received by a large audience.

ANOTHER SMALLPOX CASE.

Nathan Cottrell, colored, aged twenty-four years, who applied at the Garfield Hospital for treatment, was found to be suffering from smallpox, and was taken to the smallpox hospital on the Eastern Branch. The health officers, in tracing the case, ascertained that Cottrell had associated with Sam Wright, of Pittsburgh, now a patient in the hospital.

I Will Cure You of Rheumatism

Else No Money Is Wanted.

After 2,000 experiments, I have learned how to cure Rheumatism. Not to turn bony joints into flesh again; that is impossible. But I can cure the disease always, at any stage, and forever.

I ask for no money. Simply write me a postal and I will send you an order on your nearest drug store for six bottles of Dr. Snow's Rheumatic Cure, for every drug store keeps it. Use it for a month and, if it succeeds, the cost is only $5.00. If it fails, I will pay your drug store.

I have no samples, because any medicine that can affect Rheumatism quickly must be dragged to the verge of danger. I use no such drugs, and it is folly to take them. You must get the disease out of the blood.

My remedy does that, even in the most difficult, obstinate cases. No matter how impossible this seems to you, I know it and I take the risk.

I have cured tens of thousands of cases in this way, and my records show that 30 out of 40 who get those six bottles pay gladly.
